HOW DO YOU DO.

There is a pair of mighty large editorial shoes in this office that have belonged to Ira L. Bare for a long term of years and he has filled them to the full. He has turned them over to us and for the time we are at a loss just what to do with them. We want to wear them but it will be a long time before we can fill them. We have undertaken the job in earnest and if our success is to meet our intentions we will not fail. As a young man we had considerable newspaper experience in the different lines and it has long been our aim to get into the work again. The desire of Mr. Bare to be relieved of the responsibility of The Tribune opened a way and here we are. We will attempt to maintain the high standard of honor and business integrity that has characterized The Tribune for so long a time and improve the business methods as the need comes. The paper has many friends in all parts of this country. Many of them are old friends. To these we would extend our greetings and assure them of our determination to give them the news as has been done heretofore. We will make changes only when they seem to be in line with progress and are demanded by the reading public. We have lived in North Platte for over thirteen years and have been at the heart of North Platte's greatest institution, her schools. In transferring our chief interest from the school to the press we have not lessened our responsibility to the community but merely shifted the burden. It will be our aim to get under all movements for the betterment of North Platte and Lincoln County. We are in sympathy with all religious movements but we will not run a church paper. We will boost for all forms of clean amusement but we do not claim to be a sporting journal. We expect to be independent in politics until convinced that one party has a monopoly on the best things in government. We cannot support a society sheet, a fraternal paper, a trade journal nor any other forms of specialized publication but will try to give the news which will be of interest to our readers and boost for the things which the community needs and wants. Mr. Bare is taking a few weeks vacation in the west. When he returns we hope to have him with us until the first of the year to coach us in playing the game as he played it so successfully. It may be that we can prevail upon him to take charge of a column as a regular contributor and thus our readers will still have the best he can give them.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. J. Howe is taking treatment at the Platte Valley Hospital this week. If you haven't taken your vacation and aren't quite ready to, go see William Farnum in "The Joyous Troublemakers" at the Keith Wednesday and Thursday. It's a story of summer and outdoor sports and William Farnum as a roving vacationist.

Where are you vacationing this summer? Estes Park is great, but why not try "Hell's Goblet" once. Inside information given on this vacation tour at the Keith Wednesday and Thursday in "The Joyous Troublemakers." Get the dope on the latest vacation grounds.

You will find a complete line of Brassieres, ask for any style or kind you may want, we have them. E. T. TRAMP & SONS.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cramer and children and Mrs. E. Bonner left Sunday for a month's vacation in the west. They will go direct to Torrington, Wyoming where they will spend a few days combining business with pleasure. They will then visit a number of places in Wyoming and Colorado including Denver on the return. The trip will be made by auto.

Shall the young lady of today shape her own career in accordance with her own ideals or shall she closely adhere to established conventions? Many are now in revolt against old arbitrary rules of society and are demanding that their liberty of action be extended. More than one intelligent girl of good family is satisfied that she can safely "Live her own life." They encounter the dread power of circumstances and the destructive influences of ill repute, whether derived or not, the whispers that condemn them without any form of investigation or trial. The photoplay "Whispers" showing at the Crystal tonight teaches a lesson that is up to date and very timely. The people who are every ready to besmirch a character because they have seen something that may not look just right to them are certainly enemies to society. See this picture and take your neighbor, if it doesn't fit you it may fit them.

Supt. L. C. Littel, of the City Schools returned to his home in Cambridge, Neb., Saturday and as soon as transportation can be arranged he will bring his family to North Platte and take up his work preparatory to the opening of school.

There May be Delay in Moving Your Telephone.

If you order your telephone moved next week you may be told to expect a delay in getting it done.

Nearly half a million other telephone users in the United States will move their telephones this month, too. And for all of them many carloads of wire and other materials will be needed.

A general shortage of materials as well as a lack of sufficient transportation facilities, is holding back factory output and the telephone companies can't get enough supplies.

In this emergency it will be greatly appreciated if you will order the least possible changes in your telephonic equipment. And when you need to have something done please let us know as far in advance as possible.
